

Video Fridays: 30 Years of Les Enluminures

COURTESY OF LES ENLUMINURES

Medieval manuscripts dealer Les Enluminures of Paris, New York, and Chicago is celebrating thirty years in the business this fall. To mark the occasion, they have produced six short videos to showcase their history and vision for the future of collecting. The first one, "An American in Paris," introduces us to founder Sandra Hindman. (By the way, Les Enluminures has produced dozens of terrific videos and podcasts on books of hours, medieval objects, and more.)
